Leadership Training & Development Opportunity

The Rocky Mountain Command College (RMCC) is an exciting opportunity for law enforcement executives and leaders at all levels to discover information about emerging issues and recent developments influencing law enforcement. RMCC is a 40-hour training with faculty consisting of experts from the law enforcement field and the private sector. Topics include:

- ◆ Leadership
- ◆ Officer Involved Shooting Response
- ◆ Police Survival & Wellness
- ◆ Leveraging FBI Resources
- ◆ Case Studies

Selection of Attendees

This training is geared toward law enforcement leaders, generally sergeants and above, who can then pass on learning to their subordinate leaders and teams. Leaders of small departments are encouraged to attend but agencies of all sizes are welcome.
