

The Grand Junction Police Department is providing a Police Motorcycle Course November 3rd-13th in Grand Junction Colorado.

This course is free to Colorado Law Enforcement

This is a basic police motor officer certification, of which the Northwestern University Center for Public Safety curriculum will be taught. This course is designed for prospective police motor officers, current police motor officers needing to recert, and a as refresher for current motor officers. This is an 80 hour course.

Course Requirements:

- Properly maintained and serviced motorcycle designed for police, or similar
- Valid driver's license with motorcycle endorsement
- DOT rated and certified helmet
- Eye Protection
- Ankle high boots or taller
- Gloves
- Riding gear to be outside all day in November in Colorado

For more information or to register, please contact Ryan Martin with the Grand Junction Police Department: ryanm@gjcity.org

Spots are limited and will fill up quick!