

Law enforcement administration is charged with the responsibility and has the authority to maintain discipline within the police department. The community has an expectation that this responsibility will be fulfilled in a professional and responsive manner. Citizens should be provided a fair and effective avenue for redress of their legitimate grievances against members of the department. The police department also has the responsibility to protect members of the agency from false allegations.

This course offers a global perspective to the subject of internal affairs investigations in a systematic framework designed to enhance thorough investigations. This information is relevant for both the agency command staff and the internal affairs detective or supervisor.

Topics will include:

- Current Events in Internal Affairs
- Examination of Employee Rights
- Types of Complaints
- Complaint Processing and Investigations
- Disciplinary Procedures
- Documentation Techniques
- Early Intervention Systems

The class will be taught by Law Enforcement Seminars.
